

New year, new newsletter! Check out reading, financial aid, and mental health resources to help your students thrive in 2025.

Stories in Your Students' Language

LOTE4Kids unlocks digital picture books in 70+ languages with English translations, free with a library card or student account.

Search for your preferred language and filter books based on word count. Each book engages learners through a visual and audio component, related activities, and read-alike suggestions.

Financial Aid Support

Connect students and families with financial aid resources.

Meet with an online expert at Brainfuse HelpNow to walk through the FAFSA completion process.

For in-person assistance completing financial aid forms, students and families can attend Financial Aid Help programs at six library locations. Library staff and community volunteers are available to help in English and Spanish.

Self-Care for Teens

From winter gloom to social and academic anxieties, teens have a lot on their plate. Everyday stressors can trigger or exacerbate mental health issues.

Give your students tips and tools to seek support with mental health resources.

Let teens know they're not alone. Share nonfiction and fiction titles about teens caring for their mental health.

Read Something Funny

Playful Picture Books

These picture books will make your classroom Storytimes a riot.

Laugh-Out-Loud Early Chapter Books

Encourage your students to read (and laugh) independently.

Middle Grade Side Splitters

Captivate young readers with absurd plots and jokester heroes.

Witty Teen Reads

Enjoy the comic relief of clever banter and teen hijinks.

Upcoming Educator Workshops

Register to earn Washington state clock hours at online Educator Workshops! Sno-Isle has a great lineup of workshops for educators serving elementary, middle, and high school students.
